Industry veteran John Grochowalski has joined MBR as Senior Director of Sales. John has over 25 years experience in the industry. He was Senior VP of Sales at SunGard Planning Solutions where he grew the company from their infancy to over $72 million in revenue. John has worked with over 300 consultants solving customer requirements for business impact analysis, recovery strategy design/implementation, replication/storage assessments and testing services. “We are delighted to have John Grochowalski on the MBR team. The success that he had at SunGard over a 20 year period is a testament to his strong business ethics and wealth of industry knowledge.” said John Chesser, President. “I brought John into the business back in 1985. When it came time for me to expand my sales team, John was the first person I contacted.” said Randy Coleman, VP of Sales. “I am so excited to be working with John again. He gets it.”

“Having just returned from the DRJ Conference in Orlando, it was clearly evident that we made the right choice.” said Chesser. “Our booth was crammed with people stopping by to say hello to John and you could see the respect that they had for him.” John will now be providing many of the products and services he has sold for years.
